Questions 46 - The California Community Colleges (CCC) Associate Degree For Transfer (ADT) Program

The CCC ADTs (AA-T and AS-T) are different from the traditional AA or AS associate degrees that are offered at the community colleges. The AA-T and AS-T degrees are designed specifically to prepare CCC transfer students for upper-division transfer to the California State University (CSU) system.

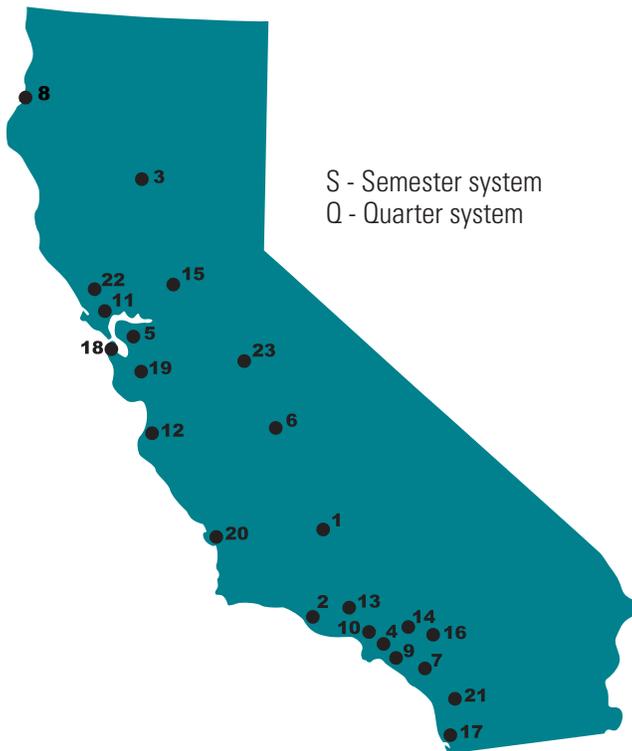

If you are uncertain as to which of the associate degrees you have or are earning, consult a transfer counselor at your community college before completing this section of the application.

To be eligible for the ADT Admission priority admission consideration with junior standing, the transfer applicant must meet the following criteria:

- Must meet the CSU minimum transfer admission eligibility requirements.
- Must have earned and been awarded an AA-T or AS-T prior to the start of the CSU enrollment term.
- The applicant's status on meeting the ADT degree must be verified by the awarding community college.
Contact your community college to learn more about the ADT verification process.
- Must have applied to a CSU degree major program that has been deemed similar by the CSU campus to which they have applied.
