SOCIAL WORK HYBRID

The MSW Hybrid Program is a 60-unit, 24-month fully-accredited degree program focusing on socially-just clinical social work practice.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Students develop core social work practice competencies with a specialization in integrative clinical practice in health and behavioral health settings. The curriculum is delivered in a hybrid format with most coursework completed online and in-person class sessions one Saturday per month at the Stockton campus. Practicum courses are scheduled in the summer. Advancing social justice and enhancing individual and community well-being are primary program goals.

PROGRAM COST

The MSW Hybrid program tuition is $35,100 (paid in six payments) for the 60-unit degree program. Additional fees apply. Tuition and fees subject to change without notice.

Students will be dropped for non-payment.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Master of Social Work Program at Stanislaus State prepares social workers to advance social justice. This education is committed to social change based on an analysis of social, political and economic structures and their impact. This teaching and learning environment enables faculty, students and graduates to collaborate with others to transform the conditions which contribute to privilege and oppression. Graduates are prepared to use an advanced integrative practice approach to work with individuals, families and communities to promote personal and collective liberation.
